CONCLUSION

Throughout this project We, learned how to develop the project professionally. Starting from the requirement analysis, how to collect the required data for project. Development such as what type of quires should be used, from whom the correct and complete data can be collected. We also learned how to debug programs, and how to do testing of the system.

After the completion of this project "E-BOOK
WEBSITE" I have gained sufficient knowledge in "Web-Development" language.
